

Use the label check list below to determine if your product label has the legal requirements

Label checklist

	Requirements	Tick	Comment
Function of product	Name/description of product if not immediately apparent.
Name and Address of the Responsible Person	The Address and Name of the Responsible Person must be placed on the labelling. Note 'Name' may be a legal entity which has taken the role of the Responsible Person.		The address must be an address where you can readily receive post/correspondence.
Batch code	The batch or lot number must be placed to enable traceability from raw materials to finished product
Declared quantity of contents	Fill size can be declared by volume (mL) or weight (g). If using the average filling system the 'e' symbol should be present. There are minimum text height requirements depending on the fill of the container: ≤50ml: 2mm, 51-200ml: 3mm, ≥201ml: 4mm, ≥1L: 6mm. The "e" symbol should be a minimum of 3mm high.
Best Before Date/ Period After Opening	If the shelf life is less than 30 months it must be labelled with a best before date. Otherwise, a Period After Opening (PAO/open jar symbol) may be used.		Recommended for bath bombs: 12 month best before and use within 6 months of opening.
Ingredient List:	The ingredient list must be placed on the label, in descending order for ingredients which are 1% or more, followed by the ingredients which are less than 1% in any order after. Colours may be placed at the end.		This will depend on the selection of your colours, mica and parfum. The 'INCI helper' and percentage guide might assist you with your ingredient labelling.
Warning Statements and Precautions	Mandatory ingredient warnings, and non-mandatory warning statements and precautions to enable the safe use of the product		See recommended warnings below.
Country of Origin	For non-EU countries a country of origin is required. Note post 31.12.2020 the UK will be considered a Non-EU country		Recommended that if you sell in the UK you name the Country of Origin (Northern Ireland, Scotland, England and Wales).

Recommended warnings:

“If product enters the eyes, rinse well with clean water”

“Store in a cool, dark place”

“Allow bath bomb to dissolve before entering the bath”

“Warning! May make surfaces slippery”

“Keep out of reach of children”

“Not to be used by children under the age of 3 years”
